"Hit de plane, de plane!"

"I need satisfaction."

"Low! Bring it up two degrees."

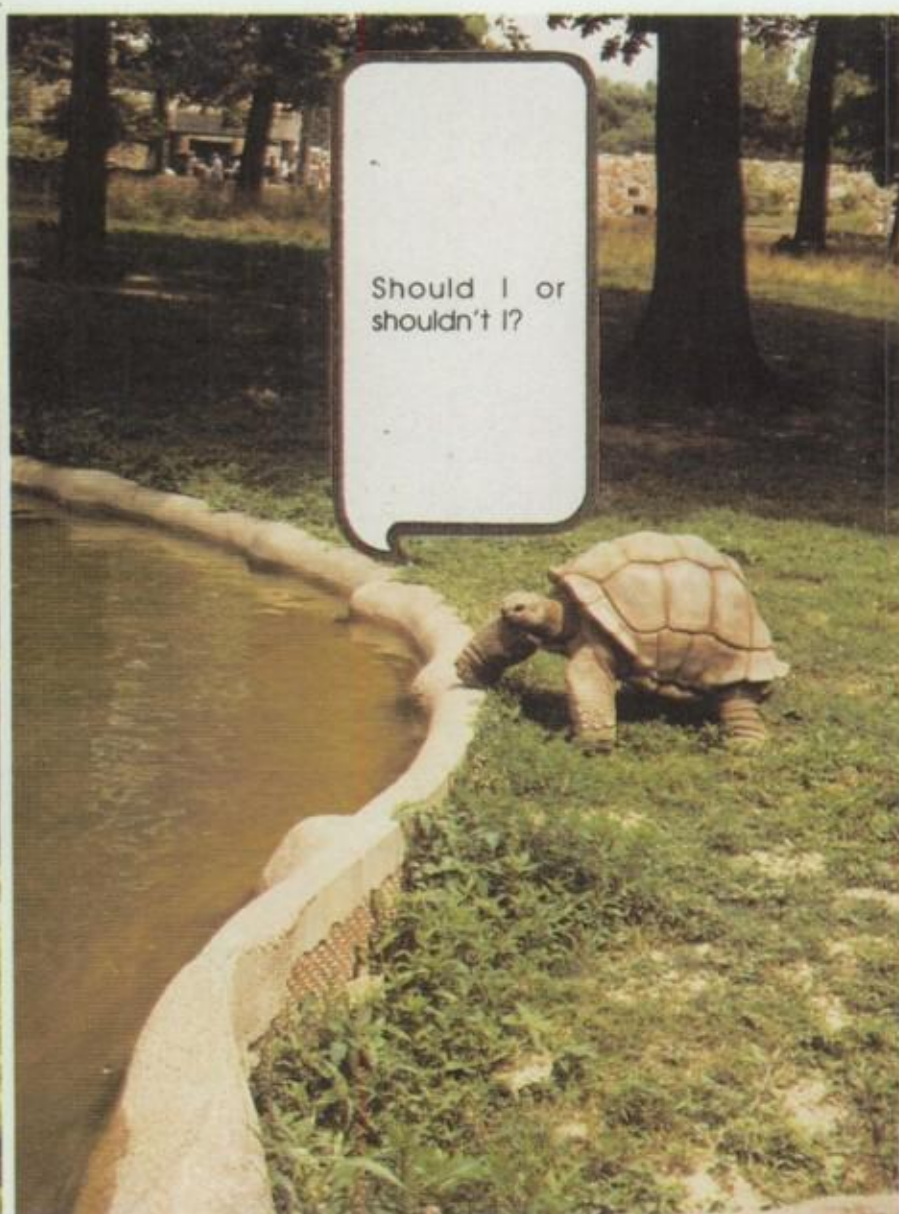

Another one bites the dust!

A crane stands in a grassy field with trees in the background. A speech bubble is positioned above its head.

Some people
call me strange.
I prefer the term unique.

A large turtle is on the grass next to a pond. A speech bubble is positioned above it.

Should I or shouldn't I?

A man wearing a hat and a "Niagara Falls" t-shirt is leaning on a wooden fence, talking to a cow. A speech bubble is positioned above the cow.

Psst. Hey, Bud! How about helping me
spring this joint.

THE ZOO

This is the life!

The inventor of the nap was a sheer genius!

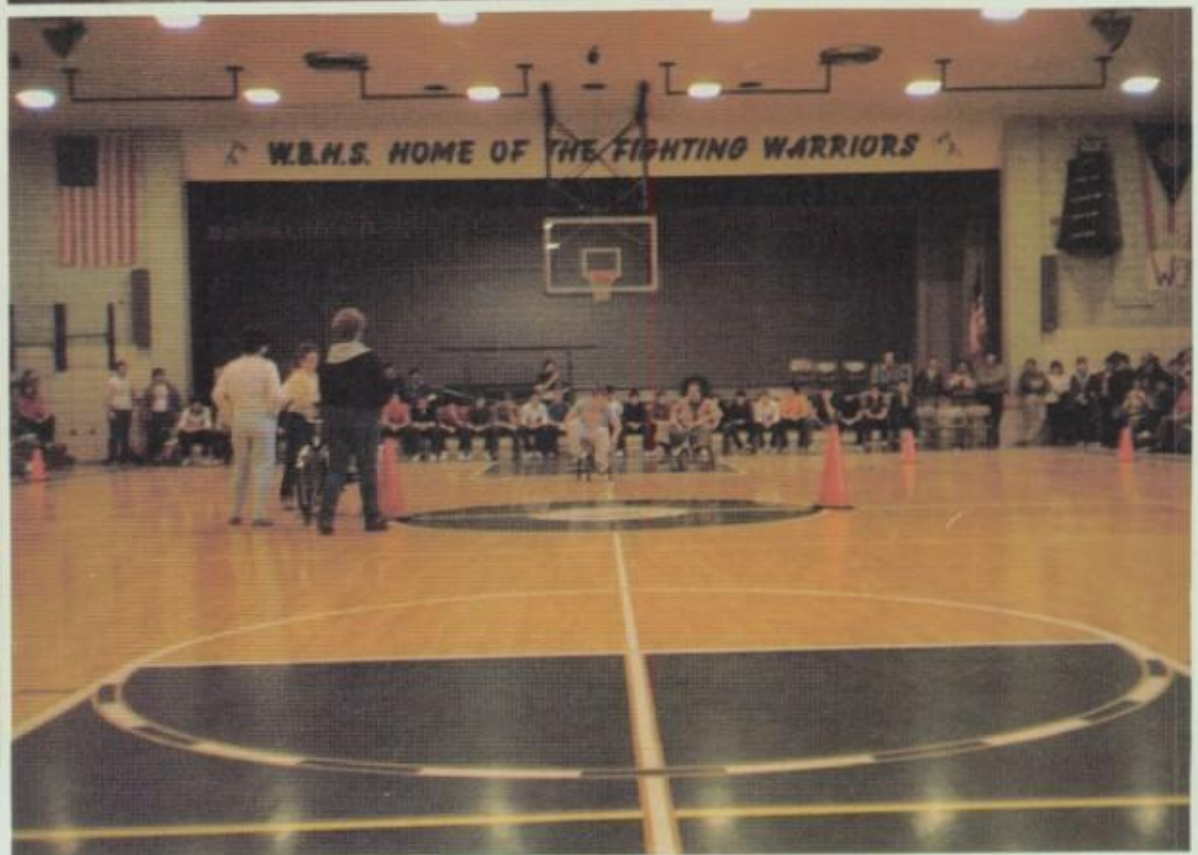

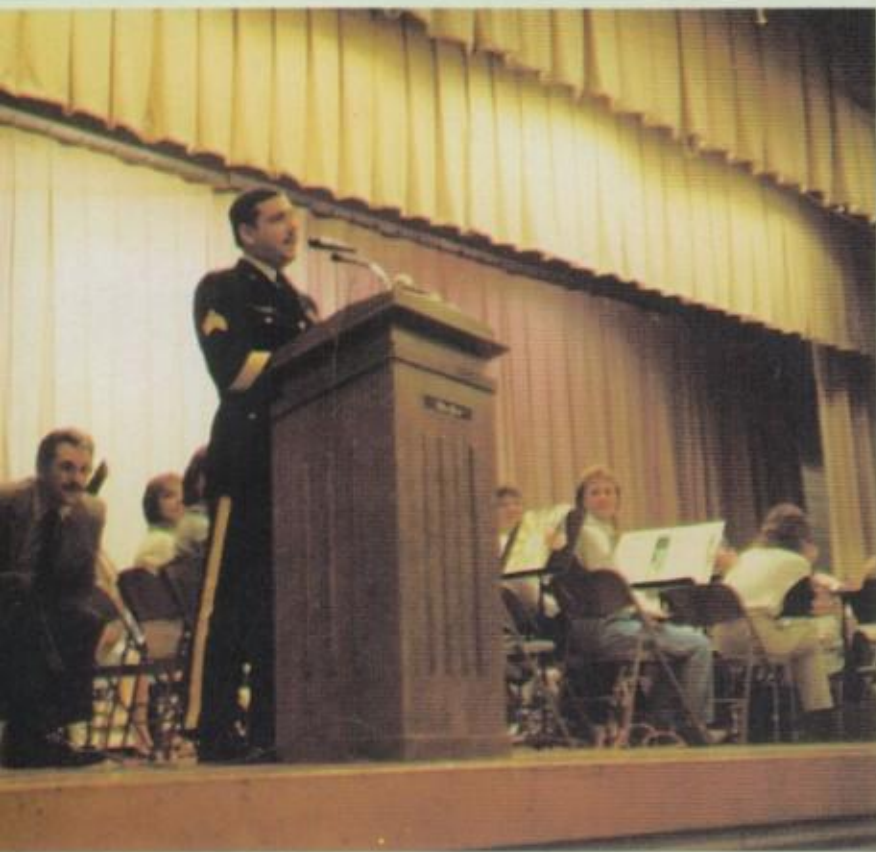

That hat is really you!

Look at this cute little goat, Judy.

Marlo, this is Bambi, not a goat.

IN MEMORIAM

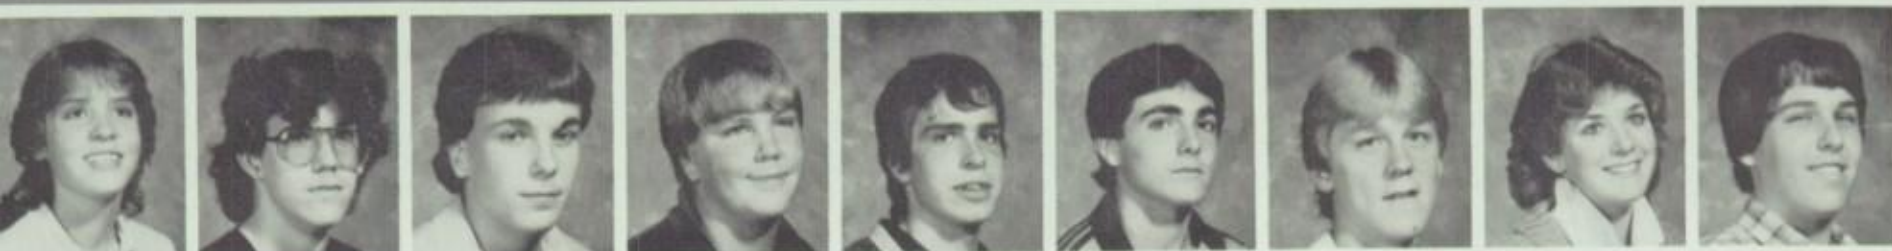

Beyond the rainbow's farthest end, there lies a land that's always filled with love and light, where shadows never fall and dim the skies. For in this lovely land, there is no night. In this celestial place of joy and peace, there is no time or space, no doubt or fear. For those who come to it, all troubles cease; all worldly difficulties disappear.

MUSICAL

Adam Pontipee and his wife Milly

After meeting the infamous Pontipee brothers, Milly decides to take the boys to the next social.

But . . . in order for the girls to notice them, they must learn proper etiquette and dancing.

Milly introduces the brothers to the fascinated girls.

The brothers proceed to astound the townspeople with their amazing acrobatic feats, much to the disgust of the suitors.

Back at the Pontipee house, Gideon dreams of Alice, the girl he loves.

The lovesick brothers return to the town and steal the girls, hoping to marry them.

The angry townspeople set out for the Pontipee house to retrieve the girls.

After the long winter and the birth of Milly's baby, the brothers and their brides-to-be enjoy a romantic evening.

The brothers marry the girls, Milly and Adam renew their wedding vows, and they all live happily ever after.

WEST BRANCH PROM

HOW ABOUT AN AUTHENTIC MEDITERANEAN FEAST

PROM

Angier's in Akron was the setting for the Junior-Senior Prom, "A Night of Magic," which took place on May 3, 1985.

"Friends, faculty, and guests, I must say you look simply mauveulous!"

Bob Childs, president of the senior class, announces the prom king and queen.

Linda and Ken take advantage of the wide variety of food prepared for this special occasion.

The work of the junior class advisors, Mrs. Taylor and Mr. McGlynn, along with the class officers, accounted for the overwhelming success of the prom.

The 1984-85 Prom King, Dan Hostetter and Queen, Krista Eick

The 1984-85 Prom King, Queen, and Court

Lisa Dennis and Tom Boosz

Junior class treasurer, Becky Kelly, crowns the prom queen, Krista Eick.

Rhonda Flenniken and Ted Kitzmiller

Bob Crum and Darlynn Huston

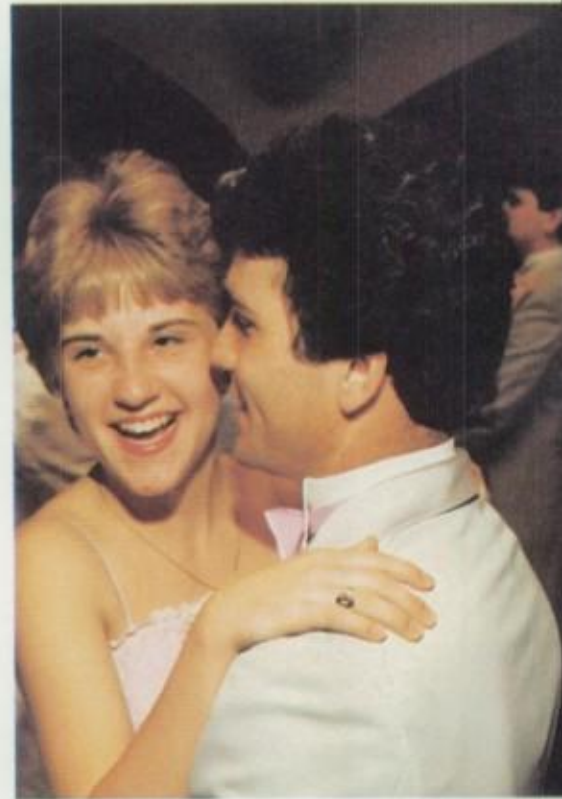

Dan is elated after receiving the title, Imperial Margarine King.

Bill Martig and Lisa Truitt

Music at the prom was provided by A. C. McCullough.

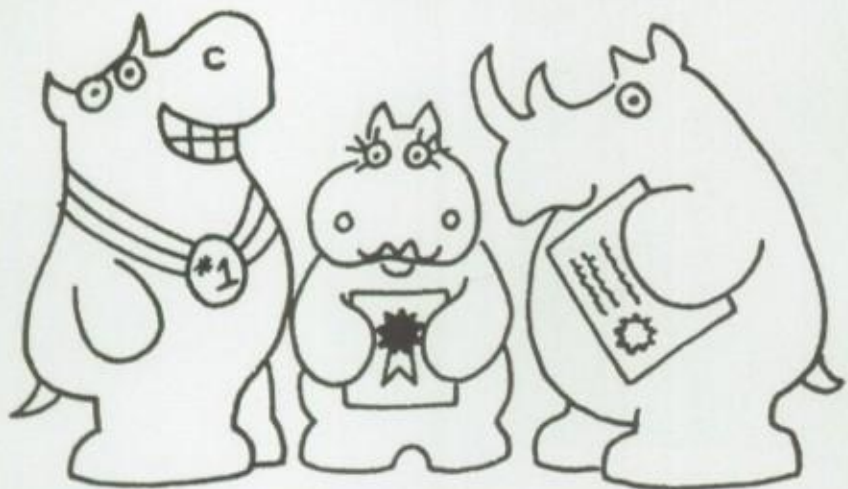

Magician, Mark Rosson, and the student body agreed unanimously that Mr. Hoefler would make the perfect guinea pig for some rather interesting magic tricks.

Broadcasted on Hot F.M. 101, West Branch was rated the number one party school of them all by A. C. McCullough.

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

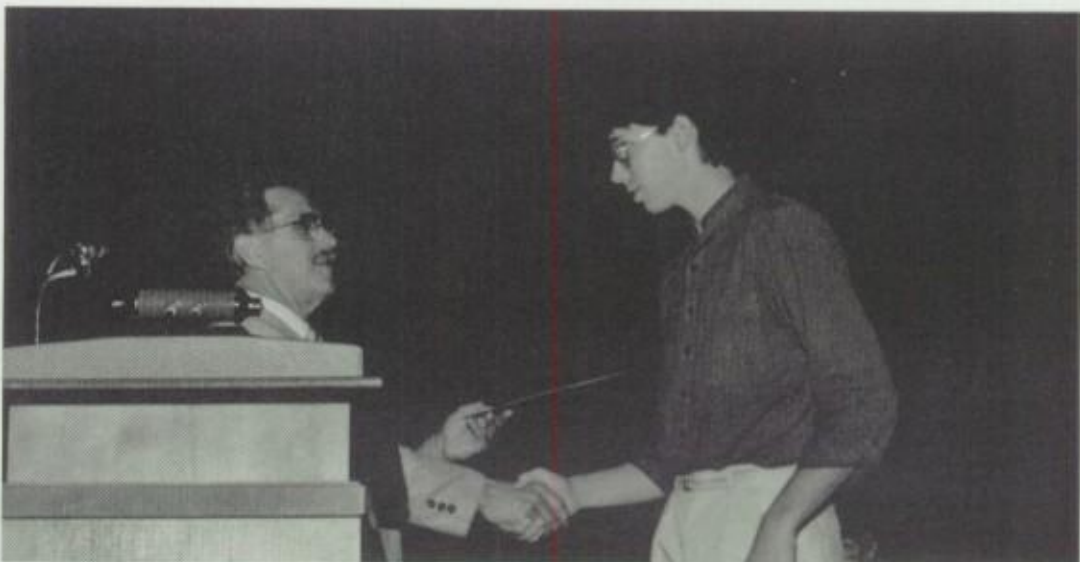

Teacher of the Year, Mr. Campbell, graciously accepts his award.

Michele Stratton makes West Branch history by becoming the first woman appointed to West Point.

Steve Keirn is one of only 5,000 winners of the National Merit Scholarship.

Jamie Collins receives the $1,000 Ohio Academic Scholarship.

Retiring senior class president, Bob Childs, gives the gavel to his successor, Bill Butcher.

Steve Keirn, a member of the up-and-coming group Airplay, sings Johnny Be Good to the large crowd at the assembly.

Missy Howenstine's and Lori Tedrow's voices win them the V. Ester Odoran Scholarship.

GRADUATION

Mr. Donald Baird, President of the Board of Education, presents the members of the Class of 1985 with their diplomas.

Superintendent Lynn King introduces both the Baccalaureate and Commencement speakers.

Pastor Jeffery Siems gives the Baccalaureate Address entitled "Get a Piece of the Rock."

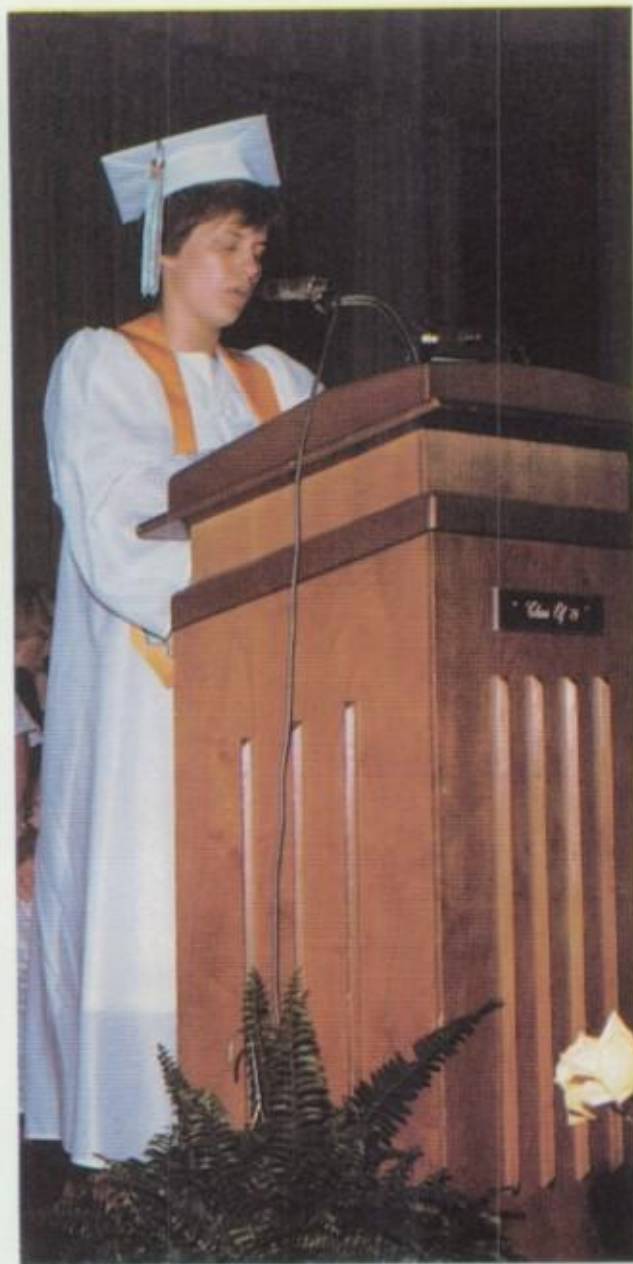

"The Challenge of Teaching," the Commencement Address, was given by Dr. Thomas Heffner.

Valedictorian: Jamie Collins

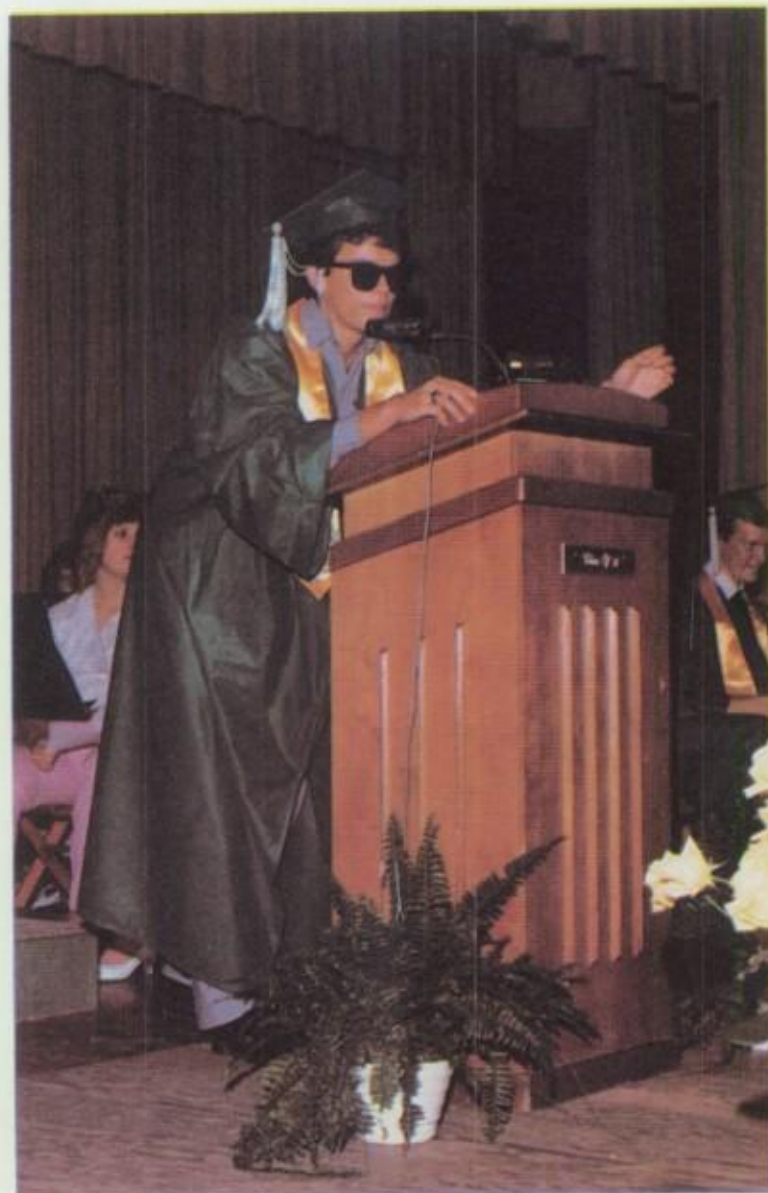

Valedictorian: Rhonda Flenniken

Valedictorian: Dan Hostetter

Salutatorian: Penny Palmer

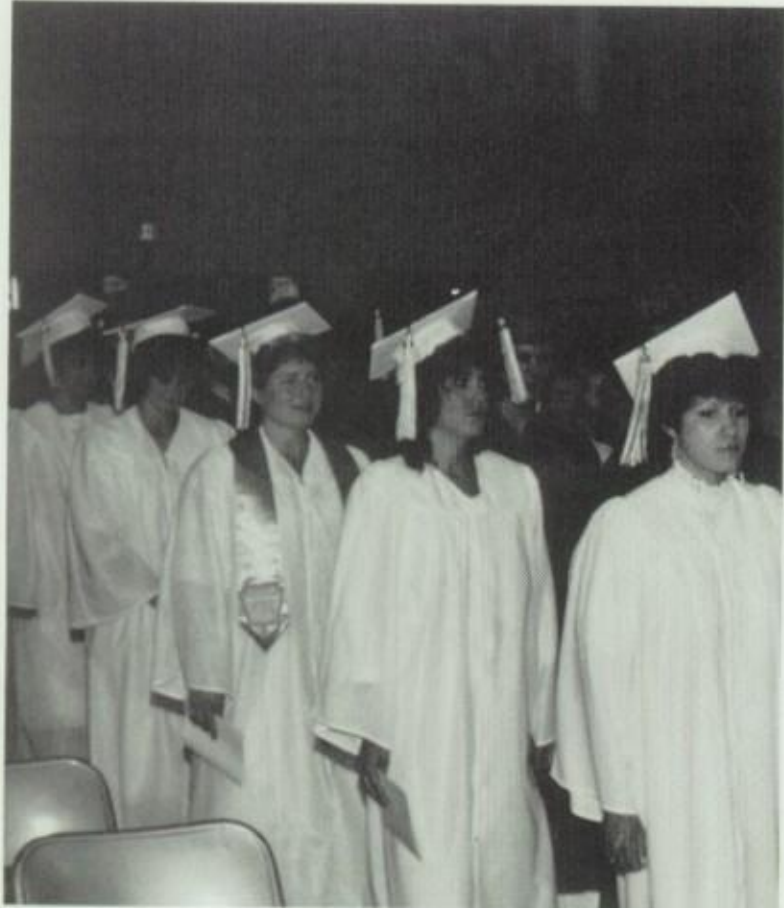

Historian: Steve Keirn

Valedictorian: Terri Shilling

Due to technical difficulties beyond our control, a graduation day picture of Terri was not available.

"Look Beyond Tomorrow" and "Benediction" were sung by the Concert Choir.

The words of the song "Closing Prayer" remind us that even though we're ending this part of our lives, the memories will live in us forever.

FROM THE EDITOR

Last Will and Testament

I, Penny Palmer, retiring editor of the Warrior, hereby will and bequeath my title to my successor and good friend, Marlo Abdoo. Hereafter, she will control the infamous staff and therefore must perform certain duties and also receive several privileges.

Due to the acquisition of this prominent title, she will undertake many tasks leading towards the end result of a fabulous yearbook. Following is a partial list of the major responsibilities of a yearbook editor.

1. Working many hours with Clark Stein, the yearbook representative, whose creative mind and willingness to help will be a tremendous asset.
2. Laboring three times as many hours with Mrs. McNutt whose aid and knowledge will be invaluable.
3. Assisting photographers from Abey Studios in their quest for the perfect picture.
4. Selling ads to all the odd, out-of-the-way places that no one has ever heard of.
5. Creating intriguing designs for all twenty-four pages of the senior section, five introductory pages, ten division pages, three pages of graduation, along with any other pages that need to be done immediately.
6. Checking and re-checking and proofreading and checking again all pages done by the staff.

Although the aforementioned seems like an immense amount of work for one person to handle, there exist some privileges that make the position more appealing. The editor will have the use of the executive lunchroom, her very own shelf to make as messy as desired, the privilege to supervise the training of concession stand workers, and a terrific excuse for loitering in the halls—"Annual Staff business."

Signed,

Penny
"85" Editor
Lots of Luck, Marlo!

Thanks to everyone who helped to make this Silver Anniversary edition the best it could be.
